Earl Browder

The current number of the Readers' Digest contains an article on the American Communist Party wherein the following reference is made to Earl Browder :-

"The Secretary of the Party - the sub-Stalin of America - is a man named Earl Browder, who was born 43 Years ago in Wichitta, Kansas. He is a small, thin-faced, sandy man with a quiet voice and a quizzical eye - a distinctly American type. He is a good executive and he knows how to handle the racial mixture he daily encounters. During the war he spent two years in Leavenworth for his anti-War activities. For 18 years he was a certified public accountant. His second in command is Clarence Hathaway, big, blue-eyed, ex-machinist from Minnesota, who edits the official Party organ, the Daily Worker.
